This week the San Diego Police Department hosts the 3rd Annual Women Leaders in Law Enforcement Conference which is co-sponsored by the California Police Chiefs Association, the California State Sheriffs' Association, the California Peace Officers' Association and the California Highway Patrol.

The conference is a two-day event open to both sworn and civilian law enforcement professionals. The purpose of the event is to promote the advancement of women leaders in law enforcement and allow participants the opportunity to network and learn from those currently in leadership positions. More than 800 participants from across the state are scheduled to attend and participate in a number of networking events, workshops, and lectures.
